Kidango’s curriculum philosophy excludes any portrayal of violence (guns or other weapons, war themes). In addition, we believe in an anti-bias curriculum, thus we do not promote specific cultural or religious holidays. Please select clothing, books and toys that meet our curriculum philosophy and restrictions. Please select gift bags and gift wrap that meet our philosophy as well. Putting donated gifts in gift bags are the most convenient, as Kidango can verify that all donations are age appropriate. However, if you choose to use gift wrap, please be especially mindful of all your purchases as the gifts will be delivered directly to children and families. Thank you for your cooperation.
